

WHAT ALL ARTISTS NEED TO KNOW

TABLE OF CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

BOOK ONE: MYTHS, FEARS AND PREJUDICE

MYTHS

- 1 You Are So Blessed To Be An Artist
- 2 One Has To Wait For Inspiration
- 3 Talent Is The Main Ingredient For Success
- 4 Great Art Will Always Be Recognized
- 5 It Is Better To Work Alone
- 6 I Have To Love Everything I Do

FEARS

- 7 Fear Of Success
- 8 Fear Of Not Being Good Enough
- 9 Fear Of Failing
- 10 Fear Of Rejection
- 11 Fear Of the Gallery System
- 12 Fear Of Being Mortal

PREJUDICES

- 13 Hobbyists Verses Professionals
- 14 Studio Verses Plain Air Painting
- 15 Ugly Art Verses Pretty Art
- 16 Elitism Verses the Popular

BOOK TWO: BECOMING A PROFESSIONAL ARTIST

WORKING LIKE A PROFESSIONAL

- 17 When Does The Experimentation End
- 18 Building A Body Of Work
- 19 The Importance Of Business Cards

PRESENTING YOUR WORK TO THE OUTSIDE WORLD

- 20 Documenting Your Artwork
- 21 Going Digital
- 22 Your Presentation Package
- 23 Where To Send Your Presentation:
 - Galleries
 - Publishers
 - Art Reps, Consultants, and Agents
 - Museums and Universities

SELLING YOUR WORK

- 24 Formulas For Pricing
- 25 Promotional Materials
- 26 Advertising
- 27 Press Releases
- 28 Written Agreements
- 29 Copyright and Consignment Law

- 30 Grant Proposals and Public Commissions
- 31 Web Sites
- 32 Alternative Spaces
- 33 Art Fairs
- 34 Trade Shows
 - Crate Building
- 35 To Print or Not to Print
- 36 How to Handle Multiples
- 37 To Self Publish or Not To Self Publish
- 38 Licensing Your Work
- 39 Business Practices
 - Record Keeping
 - Book Keeping
 - Deductions
 - Setting Up Your Business
- 40 Time Management

Some Closing Thoughts